CBRE's manager of its Queensland Hotels Brokerage business Craig Harley (pictured) has joined Knight Frank.

With more than 20 years in the game, Craig will be Knight Frank's new director of Hotel Brokerage in Queensland. At CBRE, Craig was Queensland's most successful pub broker in 2009-11, with more than $180 million in pub transactions under his belt.

Since Stephen Ellis, former head of CB Richard Ellis in Australia, became executive chairman of Knight Frank 18 months ago, more than 35 CBRE operatives around Australia have jumped ship to KF.

TIM Kent joins the Colliers Queensland business as associate director valuation, specialising in the industrial market.

Tim joins Colliers after eight years with finance and investment group Ashe Morgan Winthrop in Brisbane.

His career has also included roles at Landmark White in Sydney, Fitzroys in Melbourne and Knight Frank in Brisbane.

MILLS Oakley Lawyers has secured John Matthews for its Brisbane team as a partner in building and construction.

John's recent work includes advising an Australian-based multi-national company on risk issues and contract formation with a Swiss-registered entity, including insurance, proportionate liability and limitation of liability issues and developing one-off contractual arrangements where timing of performance and completion of work is a key political risk.

CIP general manager of Queensland and multiple Top Fuel Motorcycle Championship winner Chris Matheson and his Nitro Voodoo Team took out the Australian Fuchs Winternationals.

Chris won all 15 races of the season over the 5 round Pro-Series format, amassing 635.5 points out of 649.

Spies say he struggled a bit this time with a clutch gremlin but still managed to run four 6.2 second passes, with a 6.3s in the semi-final and a 6.157s in the final at about 370km/h.

CROMWELL Property Group is crowing that its Energex House asset in Newstead has been awarded a 5.5 Star NABERS Base Building Energy Rating.

The rating confirms the award-winning building, owned by the Cromwell Riverpark Trust, is one of Queensland's most energy efficient office constructions.

The rating places it in the top 5 per cent of all rated buildings in Australia.
